Train Conductor starts simple - route trains to their numbered tracks whilst avoiding collisions - but unique challenges appear in each of the eight unique levels, including long-haul Gold Rush Trains, broken tracks and an entire parallel ghost world where trains don't crash.

You'll be hooked the very first time you unlock a new city, and the fun continues when you revisit completed cities to set high-scores. Whether you're trying to beat your personal best, or reach the top of the leaderboards, Train Conductor delivers.

In celebration of the Australia Day Holiday, The Voxel Agents will reduce Train Conductor to $1.19 ($0.99 US) for an entire week between the 20th and 26th of January 2010!
